Investing In Real Estate

Real estate has always been the most stable and reliable investment.

Globally, real estate continues to be the most demanded asset class worldwide, ahead of stocks and bonds.

- 01
- 02
- 03

However, real estate is accessible to few people due to the high entry threshold for this type of investment.

For this reason, there is a big difference in returns between private and institutional investors.

The most profitable and highly liquid real estate costs huge sums, which are available only to large corporations.

Institutional investors have a much easier access to loans from banks.

Loans are provided on more favorable terms

lower down payment lower fees

This inherently makes real estate investments accessible and profitable only for large players who accumulate all the profits, thus forcing small investors out of the market, making the market unfair and unjust.

That's why we want to democratize access to these lucrative investments for as many users as possible by creating Federation.

Investing In Real Estate You Invest In Stability And Confidence In The Future

They are Strategic Partners

About 50% of the Federation's loans are concluded with Citigroup.

Barclays is our 2nd partner bank.

We have entered into a very favourable loan agreement that allows us to raise a lot of funds with relatively small loan collateral.

Several substantial loan agreements have been concluded with Barclays.

We chose HSBC as our 3rd partner bank.

Given that it is a world renowned bank with which we are able to conclude a long-term partnership on favourable credit terms.

It allows obtaining a credit line, making an initial payment of 11.50% of the total amount with low fees.

HSBC has concluded a first loan agreement which we have shared, according to which the bank is providing the borrower with a loan of the original principal amount of $2,415,970.00.

On average, our partner banks require a loan contribution of 10-13%.

Use of Diversification
